Reporting and Investigating Abuse or Suspected Abuse

Lindos Imperial Resort & Spa and Gennadi Grand Resort takes child abuse very seriously. Child abuse in any form including physical, emotional or sexual abuse is a serious offence. Any infringements of this type will be prosecuted to the full extent of law. Child abusers are not likely to remain in an environment where workers are trained to identify and report suspicious behavior. For these reasons, all personnel are responsible for reporting suspected child abuse or exploitation of any kind.

Any person who has knowledge of, suspects, or has witnessed a potential child protection issue involving Lindos Imperial Resort & Spa and Gennadi Grand Resort personnel should immediately contact the CPO or the management. A report should be made immediately, within 24 hours, to allow for early intervention and a prompt investigation.

This verbal report should be followed with a written statement within a further 48 hours. Failure to report suspected child abuse or misconduct may result in disciplinary action.

On receipt of the report, the CPO or the management will begin an internal investigation and where appropriate file a complaint with the relevant Police and/or Authorities. Full cooperation will be afforded them during any external investigation.

The internal investigation will be launched within 48 hours of receipt of the complaint and will be carried out by the manager and CPO. The owners of the Lindos Imperial Resort & Spa and Gennadi Grand Resort shall also be notified of the investigation.

The rights and welfare of the child is of prime importance to Lindos Imperial Resort & Spa and Gennadi Grand Resort and, therefore, any investigation will aim to respect the privacy and safety of the child and to make the investigation as child friendly as possible.

Response to Internal Investigation Findings

1. At the conclusion of the investigation, the associate, the child and/or his or her family as appropriate should be informed of concerns or allegation, the results of the investigation and what corrective action, if any, will be taken.
2. In the event an allegation is proven to be untrue, or even fabricated, appropriate steps will be taken for follow-up with the person who has been accused, the child, and the person who reported the incident. Efforts will be made to provide assistance to an associate accused of abuse with children, including counseling or other appropriate forms of support.

3. If abuse is proven by the investigation, every effort will be made to assist the child in coping with any physical or emotional trauma he or she may be experiencing. This may include medical treatment, psychological counseling or any other form of assistance deemed necessary and appropriate.
4. If the investigation concludes that child abuse has occurred which is not subject to criminal prosecution, staff will be subject to disciplinary action within Lindos Imperial Resort & Spa and Gennadi Grand Resort, up to and including dismissal.
5. If the investigation concludes that abuse has occurred which is subject to criminal prosecution according to national laws, all findings will be reported to the relevant national police authorities and full cooperation afforded them during an external investigation.
6. In the event an associate is discharged for proven child abuse, the Company will disclose such information as requested by the police, a prospective employer, or other competent authorities, in accordance with applicable law. Guests who witness or suspect any form of child abuse, exploitation, or any situation that may place a child at risk are encouraged to report their concerns immediately to the competent authorities or contact with the Management for assistance in making a report.
